

Start together. End together.

Great days deserve great beginnings.

Harris by Three H blends elegant design with smart, organized storage, creating a striking centerpiece that helps people start and end their day feeling grounded and at ease.

You need to constantly be developing useful, beautiful, elegant, durable, everyday things that people are going to want to use.

Clean lines. Clear mind.

Find visual harmony with Harris.

Every element exists in thoughtful cohesion, from doors, locks, and handles that line up cleanly to consistent locker height increments that enhance the organized aesthetic.

Plus, the optional elevated base means less bending and no personal items close to the floor.

Grab-and-go just got good-looking.
 Harris delivers storage that works as hard as you do. It's practical and accessible, with integrated features like seating that blends seamlessly, planter tops, shoe storage, and coat hooks, all thoughtfully designed to align with how people really use their space.

Here, there, anywhere.

Harris lockers can line walls, be used freestanding to define a space, or act as an architectural feature within a room. Wherever Harris goes, it grounds busy environments, creating a foundation that enhances well-being through thoughtful design.

Fits like a glove.

When simplicity is the best choice.
Locker infill delivers seamless integration for a clean and elevated look, while the hidden hook inside is as sleek as it is practical.

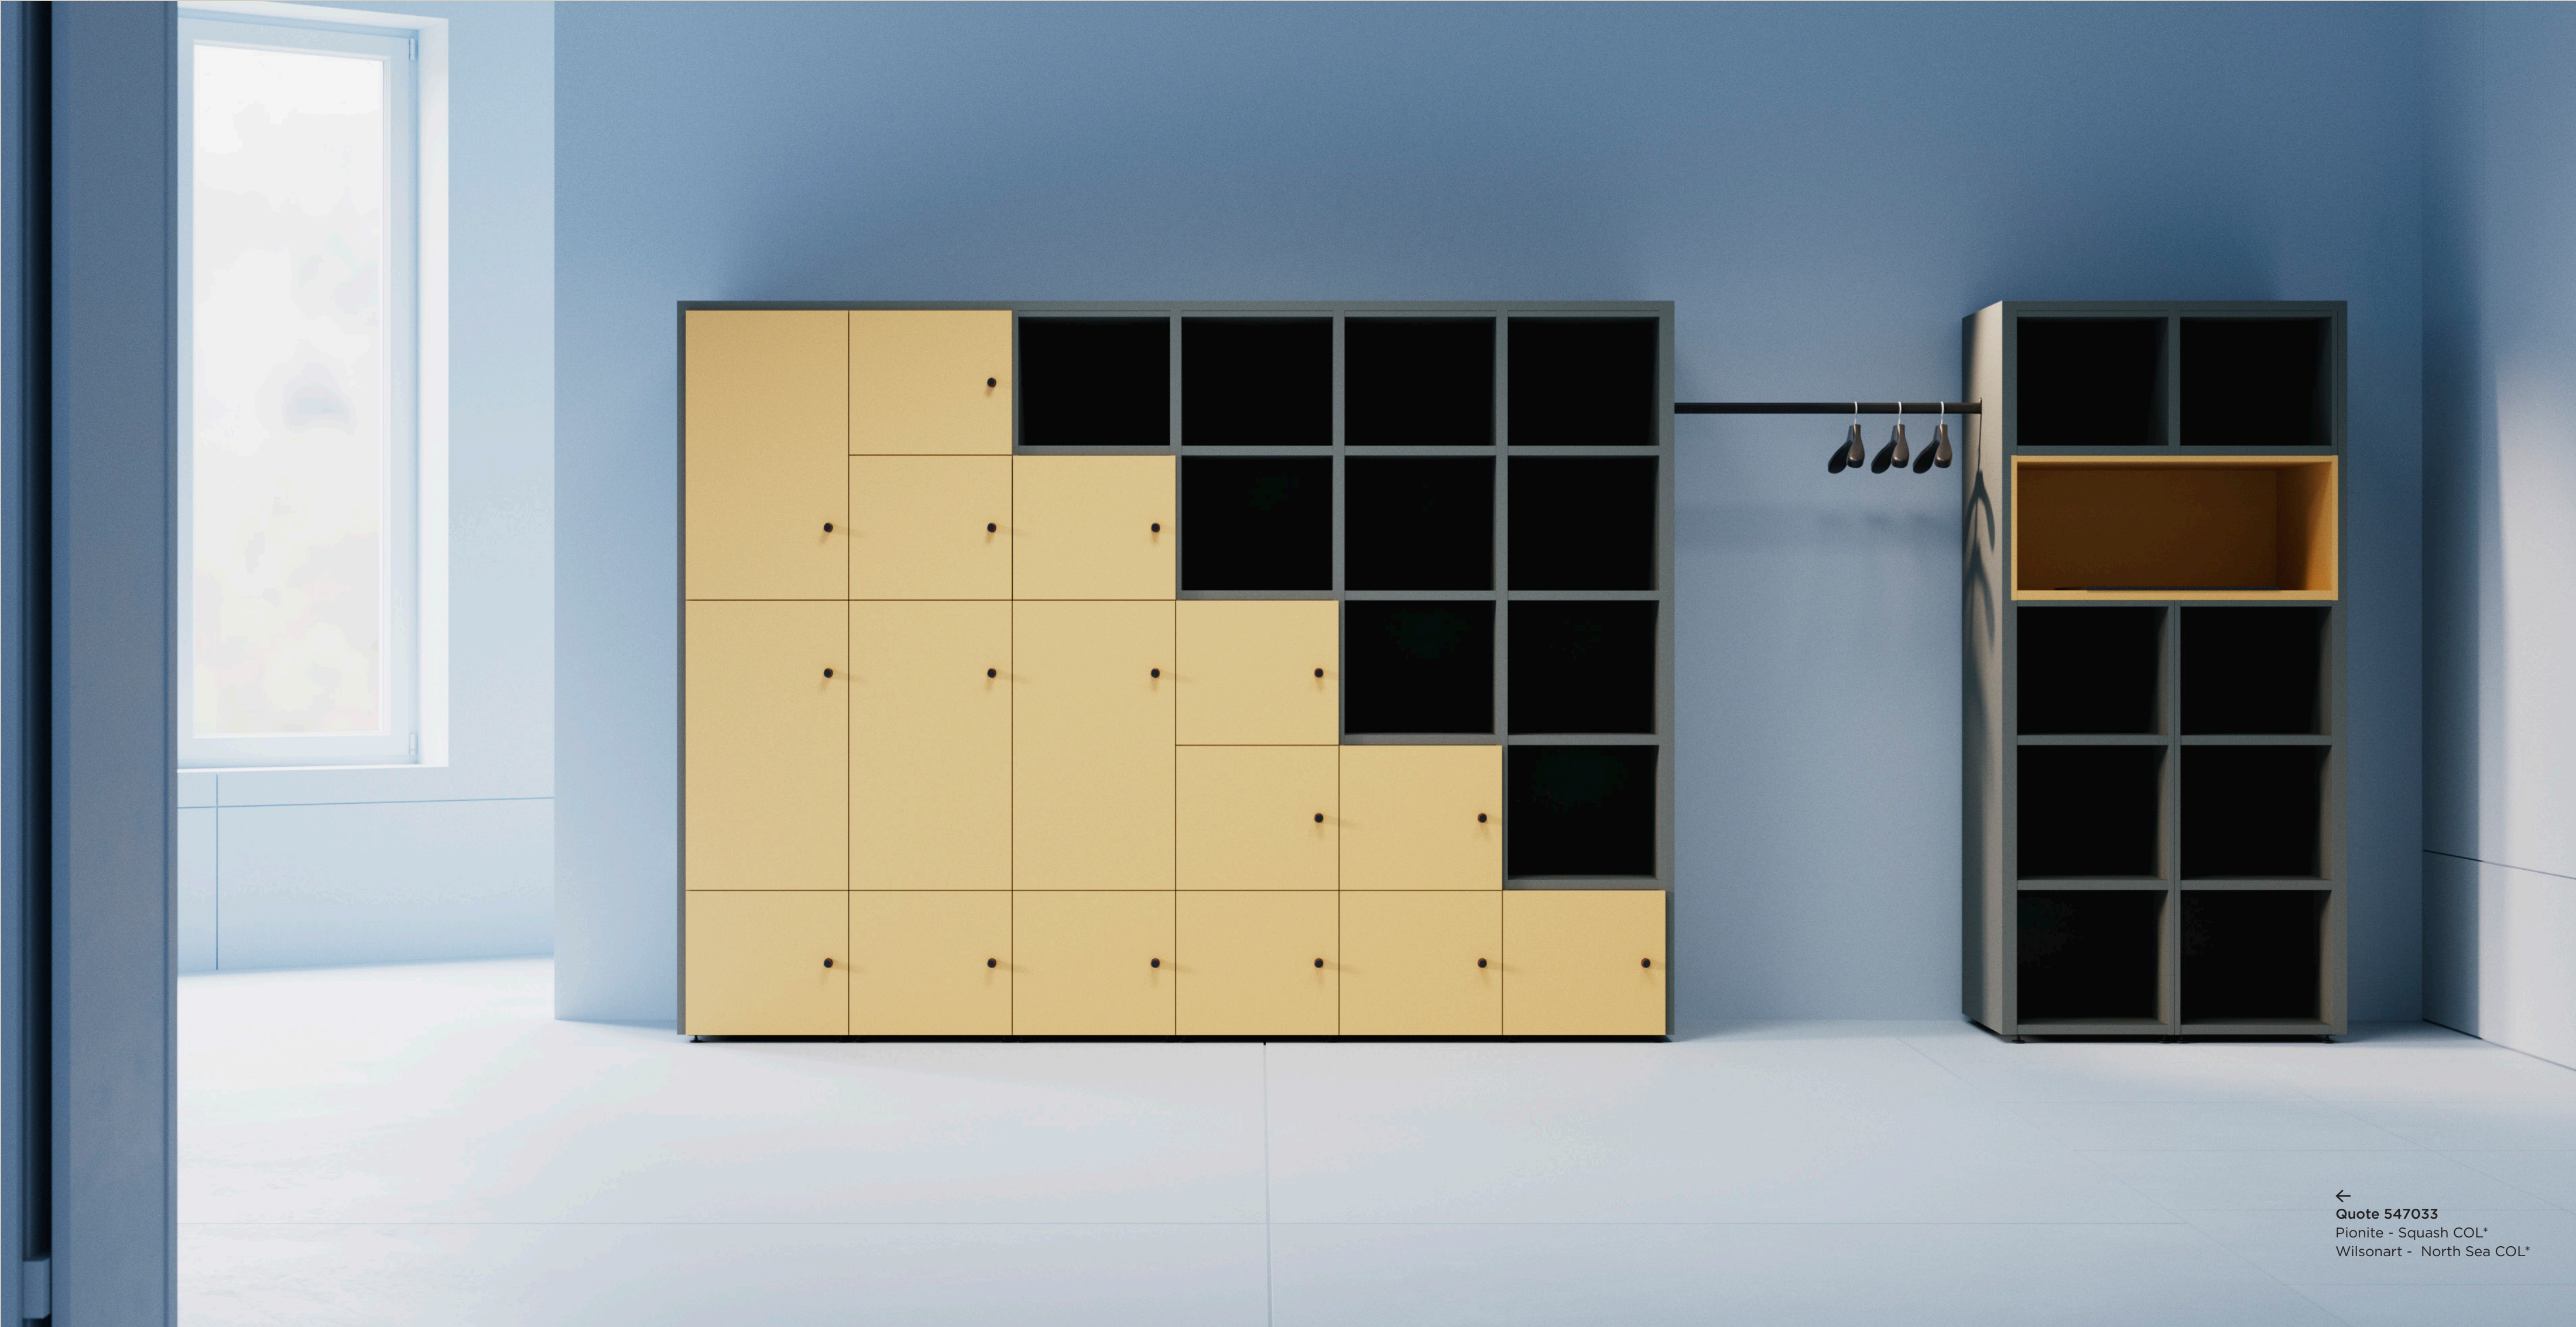

Your grounding place.

It's the little things that count.
From shelving to pinboards,
whiteboards, and mirrors, Harris has everything you need to give your things a place to belong.

Because not everything fits in a box.

Still Harris. Just with a zigzag.

The Z locker's staggered internal layout makes room for all the long things: coats, umbrellas, yoga mats, and even that awkward tripod. A full wrap finish completes the look, ensuring Harris is seamless from every angle. Whatever the shape, Z's got it.
